

Damskraal Trip 6 – 7 July

21 of us drove to the Tanqua Karoo via some back roads and some sherry at the Tankwa Padstal.

A new bushman painting site (at least for me) at Jakhals Nest in the Droëehoek area

Our model posing for us

A large south-facing overhang

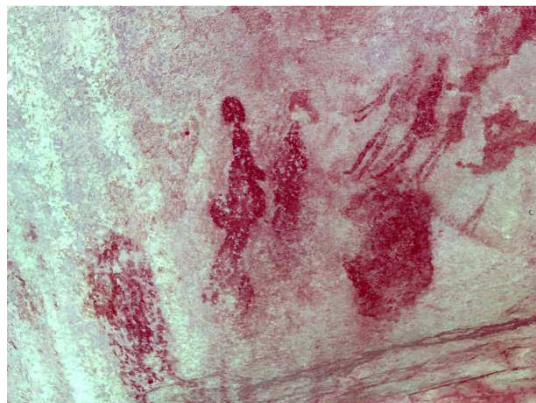

Spookhuis

The first image below is the original, and the second the enhanced image.

I used the ImageJ program with the DStretch plugin.

If you want to know more or fiddle yourself with your photos of bushman paintings, let me know, and I'll send you the programs (±4Mb)

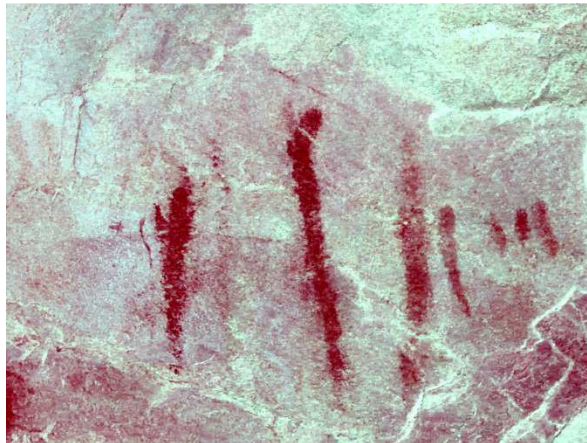

On the next pages are a few more images from a "secret" kloof on Damskraal

Same image with two enhancements

I am not sure what the main figure represents

Two more

An exciting find – stone age tool and a piece of ostrich egg shell

I did not take many photos on this trip and hope the other participants will send more.
